ExpoCycle and Outdoor Demo Day return to Montreal area

Canada's largest bike industry trade show returns to Montreal from September 9 to 12, 2009.

Ranked 17th among Canada's Top 50 Trade Shows, ExpoCycle is Canada's most important bicycle industry business-to-business event, bringing together top manufacturers, retailers, industry advocates and media to conduct the business of cycling. ExpoCycle gathers more than 850 cycling-related brands and close to 4,000 participants annually.

Despite uncertain economic times, ExpoCycle 2009 already includes close to 80,000 of net-sold, square-feet of exhibit space. Exhibitors will have on display the newest bicycles and cycling related products for the upcoming 2010 season.

The trade-only gathering kicks off with the Outdoor Demo Day at Ski Bromont in Bromont, Quebec. – home to many international mountain bike events – where ExpoCycle attendees & media can test the latest products being exhibited at the show, then moves indoors for three filled days of exhibits, product launches, educational sessions and industry celebrations.
